Software, Scale, Strategy

William L Scherlis
Carnegie Mellon University
February 2012

scherlis@cmu.edu
scale
a medium of symbols
building material of choice capability, interlinking, agility unboundedness

Languages
Models
Practices
Tools
sourcing and ecosystems
unboundedness, revisited
automatic programming

10 DO 11 I = 1, 10
11 A(I) = I*N(I)

1958.

To be presented at a symposium on the Mechanization of Thought Processes, which will be held at the National Physical Laboratory, Teddington, Middlesex, from 26th to 27th November 1958. The papers and the discussions are to be published by H.M.S.O. in the Proceedings of the Symposium. This paper should not be reproduced without the permission of the author and of the Secretary, National Physical Laboratory.
HPCC and NITRD